

	The Dressing Room (Trinity ground floor – behind stage)	The Room With A View (Trinity 1 st floor off stalls room)	Bookfair Assembly Room (Trinity 1 st floor off stalls room)	Marquee Z (Trinity garden)	Permanent Culture Now Marquee (Trinity garden)	Radical History Zone (At Hydra Bookshop)
12 - 1	12-12.30: Putting class back into the classroom (Jon/SolFed) How school is used to maintain the power & interests of the ruling class; what we can do to build an education system which gives working class pupils pride, whilst arming them with the tools for liberation. 12.30-1: Negative Anarchism (John Desmond) NA describes anarchists who are disproportionately against. An analysis & discussion of their mindsets, lifestyles, destinies, and relationship of NA's to anarchism.	Workers power in under an hour! (Bristol IWW) Overworked? Underpaid? Bully Boss? Get Organised. Learn how to protect yourself at work and get one over your boss. Workers power in under an hour! Learn the basic techniques of how to Agitate, Educate, Inoculate, Organise & Unionise your workplace. Proper boss!	11.45-1.15pm Anarchism &amp; the future of political struggle (Panel – Nick/AFed, Tony/HSG & Matt Wilson) Anarchism emerged in the 19 th century as a movement to abolish a system built on class exploitation and hierarchy. Far from philosophical speculation, anarchy is a practice that seeks to create a society based on equality and liberty. As such it is vital to assess our potential as a movement, and opportunities for building the future we want. A discussion about where we are and where we are heading.	Freedom through football: the anatomy of an alternative sports club (Will/Easton Cowboys& Girls) Talk about the Easton Cowboys & Cowgirls, their experience as an alternative/anarchist club. Plus discussion - 'what potential is there for sport in general as a radical force?'	An intro to Permanent Culture Now (PCN) Our aim is to help foster a move towards a pragmatic, positive, social, economic and political transition to a permanent culture through sharing information, knowledge and making links between different areas of thought. Find out how this can help you develop a new world.	British armed forces' strikes and mutinies in 1918-19 (Roger Ball/BRHG) Kick off the afternoon with the forgotten history of British armed forces' post-WWI strikes and mutinies. Plus discuss what we can do to disrupt the Tories attempts to spin next year's 100th anniversary of the war's outbreak.
1 - 2	Queering anarchism: gender, sexuality &amp; power (Jamie Heckert) Having seen a rise in discussions of anarchism, sexuality, queer theory and activism, Jamie Heckert introduces two books he contributed to: Queering Anarchism (AK Press) and Anarchism & Sexuality (Routledge). Plus open discussion on issues raised by participants.	Technology, Networks, Collaboration &amp; Cyberagitation (Hacktion Lab) Taster to HacktionLab & Barn Camp, with Q&A and discussion. The Internet: a zeitgeist of collaboration & openness, developed on sharing & trust. Despite attempts to commercialise, control & monitor it, the original spirit of collaboration is alive and kicking!	1.30-3pm The Shrewsbury 24 Campaign - 'Guilty my arse!' Speakers - Terry Renshaw and Eileen Turnbull/S24 Campaign Facilitator - Steve Mills – Bristol IWW and Unison (personal capacity) After their successful 1972 strike for improved pay and conditions, twenty-four construction workers were arrested and charged with offences related to picketing. Des Warren, Ricky Tomlinson, John McKinsie Jones and three other pickets were jailed, the remaining pickets got suspended sentences. They have always maintained their innocence and believe the government was behind the charges. With black-listing and police corruption still issues for workers and activists, Terry Renshaw will talk about his participation in the strike and Eileen Turnbull will outline new evidence she has discovered.	Why Prison Abolition? (Bristol ABC) Discussion: Why we talk about 'prison abolition', and its implications? Abolition for all prisoners? Who benefits from the prison system? How can concepts like practical solidarity & letter writing break down prison walls? What can you do in your local area?	Urban Permaculture (Steve/PCN) Set against a backdrop of climate change, a collapsing monetary system and Party Political domination by neoliberal ideology, urban permaculture gives us the chance to develop our own local resources whilst regenerating local eco-systems, and helps us build community whilst building a new world.	3 minutes to midnight: the women's anti-nuclear protest at Greenham Common (Elaine Titcombe) In 1981, 36 Women for Life on Earth, marched in protest against nuclear missiles from South Wales to a nuclear base at Greenham Common. 30 years since the height of the campaign, we consider its legacy upon radical movements, particularly feminism.
2 - 3	Capitalism! What it is &amp; how to destroy it (Dariush/Kaput collective) What is it? How can we destroy it? Come along to discuss some answers to these questions!	Resisting Workfare (Boycott Workfare) Workfare schemes (forced unpaid work) are being resisted by claimants; and by direct action targeting those who profit - companies & charities, and programme providers like A4e. The growing campaign has asked unions to boycott workfare. Explore & share stories & ideas for future action	3-4.30pm Greece: the mainstream, Left &amp; Nazis – where is Anarchy? (Christos Boukalas) This talk maps out the crisis in Greece, and the perspectives ahead including the fate of mainstream political parties, the rise of the Euro-left, and the ominous ascendance of Golden Dawn. It will focus on the re-configuration of the Greek state on openly fascist lines, the (temporary) defeat of the social movements, and the condition of Greek Anarchy including its role in the present situation.	The case against deportation charter flights (Stop Deportation/ Corporate Watch) Increasingly the UK's way of deporting lots of migrants to a growing list of countries. CW & SD's extensive research into these flights found unpublished details, evidence of unlawfulness, avenues for legal challenges etc. Learn how it works & how you can stop it!	Commonising capital (Martin Large) Capitalism is in crisis, and is costing the earth and destroying society in the name of the free market. Martin, a community land trust pioneer from Stroud common wealth, introduces practical coop and mutual solutions for stewarding capital and land as commons, for enterprise and community benefit.	Running down Whitehall with a black flag: memories of anarchism in the 1960s (Di Parkin/BRHG) Di was a revolutionary activist from early 1960's to the 1980's. She focusses here on her personal memories as a 1960's anarcho-syndicalist, and on interviews with the Syndicalist Workers Federation and its links to the Spanish CNT in exile.
3 - 4	Stop G8 - One common struggle: London Resistance (Stop G8 Infotour) This June the G8 leaders meet in Northern Ireland. As economic crisis bites, and the planet burns, the bosses & their politicians celebrate business as usual. Find out more about the mobilisation Stop G8 are calling in London - one of the bedrocks of capitalism.	Fighting for ourselves – an introduction (Bristol SolFed) SolFed introduce ' Fighting for ourselves: anarcho-syndicalism and the class struggle ', covering lost history of the workers' movement & setting out a revolutionary strategy for present conditions; and discuss anarcho-syndicalism & its relevance for workers.	3-4.30pm Greece: the mainstream, Left &amp; Nazis – where is Anarchy? (Christos Boukalas) This talk maps out the crisis in Greece, and the perspectives ahead including the fate of mainstream political parties, the rise of the Euro-left, and the ominous ascendance of Golden Dawn. It will focus on the re-configuration of the Greek state on openly fascist lines, the (temporary) defeat of the social movements, and the condition of Greek Anarchy including its role in the present situation.	Resisting extreme energy – from mountain top removal to fracking (Bristol Rising Tide & Frack Free Somerset) Using the Beehive Collective artwork 'The True Cost of Coal' we tell the story of mountain top removal in the USA. Themes of land grabs, exploitation of communities & environmental destruction will be related to other forms of extreme energy, and the campaign to resist fracking.	The future of Indymedia (Bristol Indymedia) Reps from Bristol Indymedia invite the public to reflect on what Indymedia means to them and to offer suggestions for the future of the site. We hope we can benefit from some creative feedback to help us move constructively into the future.	Poor Man's Heaven: the Land of Cokaygne and other utopian visions (Omasius Gorgut/Past Tense) Facing a life defined by exploitation & suffering, the poor of the Middle Ages dreamed up the fantastical Land of Cokaygne - where their sufferings were reversed; people lived in idleness & plenty; and the rich were barred.
4 - 5	Fitwatch: Direct action tactics against state surveillance (Fitwatch) Direct Action is a powerful tactic against the snooping & prying of Forward Intelligence Teams (FIT), and their new sidekicks, Police Liaison Officers (PLOs). A little organised resistance can stop them getting their 'intel' at crucial times.	How do the militarists get away with it? (BAAT) MOD proposes a 10year £160billion spend on weapons systems. Clare Cochrane (Atomic Weapons Eradication) & Medea Benjamin (Code Pink) inspire a debate about military spending madness and which corporations benefit.	4.45-6.15pm The capitalist crisis – what are the alternatives to austerity? (Panel – Dariush/Kaput, Kier/AFed, Di/BRHG, Nikos/RDBristol) The Coalition tell us 'there is no alternative' and Labour have bought into this idea, merely arguing cuts have gone 'too far too fast'. This meeting will debate the origins of the crisis and ask why, despite all the cuts, capitalist governments cannot return to 'business as usual'. As Anarchists, can we put forward an alternative economic path that brings us closer to a just and sustainable society?	If not now, when? Can we live ethically &amp; anarchically within state-capitalism? (Matt Wilson) Lifestyle politics finds support and disapproval amongst radicals. A necessary part of creating 'a new world in the shell of the old', or a distraction from radical social change? Will it strengthen state-capitalism, or contribute to its downfall?	Reclaiming the land (ReclaimTheFields & Building Man) People are taking back the land for the common good. RTF have reclaimed farmland in the Forest of Dean to grow food and live on. Building Man is attempting to build permanent festivals sites, using the gift economy idea, for common use.	Hillbilly Nationalists, Urban Race Rebels, and Black Power in 60s USA (Roger Ball/BRHG) Talk based on series of recent books on the hidden history of white working class radical community groups who formed the 'Rainbow Coalition' - with the Black Panthers, Young Lords, Native American and Japanese American revolutionary groups in 1969.
5 - 6	Anarchism and the working week (K,T&E) Discussion around the interplay between our desires for autonomy, solidarity & ecological care, and the compromises & opportunities available to us in a world of work dominated by destructive systems like capitalism. Featuring local case studies	Let's talk about sex: consent, coercion, communication &amp; accountability (Shaun/AFed) Discussion about what we mean by the terms consent and coercion in relation to intimacy: looking at options & techniques for practising good consent; attempting to tackle issues with communication when it comes to sex; covering accountability and responsibility both individually and as a community.	4.45-6.15pm The capitalist crisis – what are the alternatives to austerity? (Panel – Dariush/Kaput, Kier/AFed, Di/BRHG, Nikos/RDBristol) The Coalition tell us 'there is no alternative' and Labour have bought into this idea, merely arguing cuts have gone 'too far too fast'. This meeting will debate the origins of the crisis and ask why, despite all the cuts, capitalist governments cannot return to 'business as usual'. As Anarchists, can we put forward an alternative economic path that brings us closer to a just and sustainable society?	Kafe Libertad: Solidarity, fair trade and the free market (Cafe Libertad Kollektiv, Hamburg) A founder of CLK discusses the successes & problems of fair trade, the free market & 'economic solidarity'. For 12 years the anarcho-syndicalist CLK has had a major role in distributing Zapatista coffee from the autonomous zones of Chiapas, Mexico.	Is permaculture political? (Panel – Boyd/Feed Bolton, Mike Feingold/ Bristol + more TBC) Permaculture is a design science that looks at how natural eco-systems work and then applies this thinking to the how we design our lives. Although it is not a political ideology itself, has it become a political force in its own right through its practical applications?	'Libres': Songs of the Spanish Revolution (Pilar Lopez) Musical performance about the Spanish Social Revolution of 1936, that aims to draw inspiration from these amazing times, making links with the rise of the Indignad@s movement and what's currently happening in Spain

