

Monday 2nd May

The Road to Haymarket, May Day, and its Relevance Today

Bristol Indymedia and the Bookfair Collective present on the 125th anniversary of the Haymarket Affair in Chicago an evening of films and discussion looking at the origins of International Workers Day and the relevance of labour movement struggles and trade unions today.

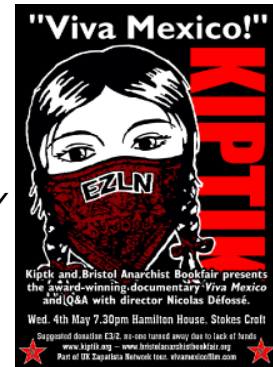

At The Cube Microplex, Dove St South BS2 8JD

7.30pm for 8.00pm start. Cost £4/3/nobody turned away for lack of funds bristol.indymedia.org/article/703712

Wednesday 4th May

Viva Mexico

Bristol-Zapatista solidarity group KIPTIK, and the Bookfair Collective, present Viva Mexico. A brilliant new film about the Zapatistas, Mexico, and The Other Campaign of 2006. Exclusive Bristol screening, followed by a Q&A with the director. At Hamilton House, 80 Stokes Croft BS1 3QY
From 7.30 to 10.30pm, entry by donation. kiptik.org

Wednesday 4th May

Bookfair benefit - The Bastard Squad Collective

Incites You To Start A Riot With...

THEE INFIDELS / LUVDUMP / PO-LICE plus info

At The Plough, 223 Easton Rd, Easton, Bristol BS5 0EG

Doors 8pm, Cost £4

bastardsquadcollective.wordpress.com

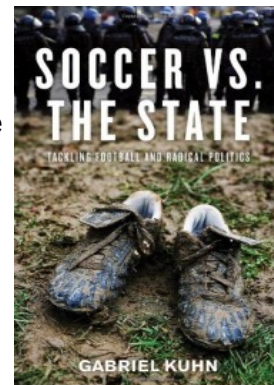

Friday 6th May

Soccer vs. the State: Tackling Football and Radical Politics

BRHG host ex-semi-pro footballer, author & anarchist Gabriel Kuhn. He explores the history and politics of the professional game and takes a look at radical supporter culture and grassroots football worldwide. Introduced by football writer David Goldblatt.

At Easton Community Centre, Kilburn Rd BS5 0EG

From 7.30-9.30pm, donations welcome brh.org.uk

Saturday 7th May

Bookfair After-Party FUNdraiser

Kebele Sound and friends present a truly international stomping dance night out

ANKLYLYM/COLECTIF MARY READ/CHINA BULL SHOP/ABERRANT

Plus DJs playing a right mix of ska, hip hop, jungle and then some!

At The Attic Bar, Stokes Croft BS1 3PR

from 9pm to 2am, Cost £5

kebelesound.wordpress.com

Sunday 15th May

Feedback Meeting

The Bookfair Collective invites you to come and give your feedback on this years Bookfair, be you a stall-holder, meeting organiser or punter. Constructive criticism very welcome and we welcome anyone who would like to be involved in organising the next Bookfair.

At Kebele Social Centre, Robertson Road BS5 6JY from 5pm

For more details and other events see www.bristolanarchistbookfair.org